

The Department of Economics in the Faculty of Arts and Science at Queen's University invites applications for a Tenure-track faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor with a preferred starting date of July 1, 2020. We are particularly interested in applicants specializing in the economics of institutions, technology and markets, but candidates in other fields will also be considered.

Candidates must have a PhD or equivalent degree completed at the start date of the appointment. The main criteria for selection are academic and teaching excellence. The successful candidate will provide evidence of high quality scholarly output that demonstrates potential for independent research leading to peer assessed publications and the securing of external research funding, as well as strong potential for outstanding teaching contributions at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, and an ongoing commitment to academic and pedagogical excellence in support of the department's programs. Candidates must provide evidence of an ability to work collaboratively in an interdisciplinary and student-centred environment. The successful candidate will be required to make substantive contributions through service to the department, the Faculty, the University, and/or the broader community. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. This position is subject to final budgetary approval by the University.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

To comply with federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information as to how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: "I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada"; OR, "I am not a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada". Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

A complete application consists of:

- a cover letter (including one of the two statements regarding Canadian citizenship / permanent resident status specified in the previous paragraph);
- a clear indication in the cover letter of which position (or both) the candidate is applying. (A single application can suffice for both positions.)

- a current Curriculum Vitae (including a list of publications);
- a statement of research interests;
- a job market paper
- a statement of teaching interests and experience (including teaching outlines and evaluations if available); and,
- three letters of reference.

All candidates should apply online at <http://www.econjobmarket.org>. Letters of reference should also be submitted via this website and should be addressed to: Professor Robert Clark, Appointments Committee Chair, Department of Economics, Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, Canada K7L 3N6. Complete applications will be reviewed commencing November 18, 2019.

Applicants who are unable to submit their materials electronically may send hard copies by regular mail to:
