

Teaching Positions Available for 2024-25
Department of Economics
Queen's University, Kingston, ON CAN K7L 3N6

The Department of Economics at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in:

- Introductory Macroeconomics (ECON 112) (Fall term)
- Introductory Microeconomics (ECON 111) (Winter term)

As these courses are being offered online, successful candidates will also:

- have regular access to high speed internet and a computer that meets current specifications
- be willing to take an active role in delivering the course and communicating regularly with students
- be open to learning how to use the new technologies in order to be effective in the virtual environment
- be flexible in terms of availability, which may include offering online office hours via the web at times outside of the regular 9-5 work week
- be willing to provide students with timely and constructive feedback on OnQ
- be comfortable with working in a partnership with Arts and Science Online in the delivery of the course.

The online course is already developed, so teaching duties would primarily consist of assisting in updating those materials, engaging students throughout the course to facilitate their learning and providing effective feedback. Support from Arts and Science Online will be provided to assist in the management of course activities.

Candidates for any of these positions should have a doctorate in Economics and teaching experience at the university level, or equivalent experience, in the appropriate fields. Fall term appointments will be for the period September 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024, with classes in session from September 3, 2024 to December 3, 2024, followed by an examination period. Winter term appointments will be for the period January 1, 2025 to April 30, 2025, with classes in session from January 6, 2025 to April 4, 2025, followed by an examination period.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Please indicate in your application if you have a valid legal work status in Canada. Applications from all qualified candidates will be considered in the applicant pool. In order to support your employment at Queen's, we require you to indicate whether or not you will need a work permit.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: Alex Fox, econ.admin@queensu.ca, 613-533-2254.

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at Collective Agreements/LoU's/MoA's.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters emailed directly to:
