

2024 W. A. Mackintosh Lecture

David E. Card

Nobel Prize Winning
Economist
& Queen's Alumnus

Cause and Effect and Evidence-based Policies

David Card is a labor economist, best known for his research on minimum wages, immigration, education, and inequality. He received his BA in 1978 from Queen's University and his PhD from Princeton. In 1995, he received the American Economics Association's (AEA) John Bates Clark Prize, awarded to the economist under 40 who has made the most significant contribution to the field. He was President of the AEA in 2021, and co-recipient of the Nobel Memorial Prize in Economics in 2021.

Date: Thursday, September 19, 2024

Time: 4:00 - 5:30 PM

Location: Stirling Hall, Room C

Sponsored by:
The Department of Economics