HONESTY, GLORY, AND POSSIBILITY: QUEER EXPERIENCES OF GENDER

a 2SLGBTQIA+ Community Group Exhibition

April 5 - 23, 2022

Queen's Reads and Union Gallery are pleased to co-present Honesty, Glory, and Possibility: Queer Experiences of Gender, a community exhibition featuring 2SLGBTQIA+ artists.

Honesty, Glory, and Possibility draws inspiration from the 2021-2022 Queen's Reads selection I Hope we Choose Love: A Trans Girl's Notes from the End of the World by Kai Cheng Thom. The goal of this collaborative exhibition is to resist and disrupt gender-binary narratives rooted in heteronormativity, settler-colonialism, and white supremacy through art. Questions that the artists responded to in their work include: In what ways do I stand outside of the gender-binary? How do I choose to express my gender as a queer person? How is my queerness and gender related? And what do I want the world to know about how I experience queerness and gender?

This art show is an invitation to bear witness to the complicated, messy, and nuanced ways queer folk experience gender. For the straight guests viewing this art show, we ask that you reflect on how you can use your power and privilege to protect and amplify queer communities. For the queer guests, we encourage you to find hope in how this art show works to break down walls by radically loving and caring for all forms of queerness.
