

Anya Hageman

Rank: Assistant Professor

Appointment Status: Continuing Adjunct

Academic Background and Work Experience

Academic Background

PhD Agricultural Economics, Cornell University, 1991-1997

MA Economics, Queens University, 1990

BSc (Hons.) Agriculture, University of British Columbia, 1985-1989

Work Experience

Adjunct Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Queens University,
September 2000 until the present.

Memberships

Professional Memberships

The Association for Research of Indigenous Peoples
Canadian Economics Association

Teaching, Curriculum Development and Supervision

Teaching and Curriculum Development

Undergraduate Courses (Queens):

Economics of Indigenous Communities (ECON 244), developed, 2018 – present
Population and Economic Change (ECON 280), developed, 2008 – present
Environmental Economics (ECON 290), 2005 – 2021 irregular
Microeconomic Theory (ECON 212), 2001 – 2017 irregular; developed the online version
Macroeconomic Policy (ECON 223), developed on-campus and online versions, 2005 – 2016

Supervision

Undergraduate Supervision

Greg Adams 2021

Inez Hillel 2018-2019

Publications and Presentations

Publications

Refereed Journal Publications

Kelly, M.W. and A.P. Hageman, Journal of Economic Growth, vol. 4 (1), March 1999, pp. 39-54.

Hartwick, J.M. and A.P. Hageman, in Ernst Lutz, ed., Towards Improved Accounting for the Environment. The World Bank, 1993.

Books

Hageman, Anya and Pauline Galoustian (2024). Demography and Economics. Kingston, Ontario: Queen's University Library.

<https://ecampusontario.pressbooks.pub/demographyandeconomics>

Hageman, Anya and Pauline Galoustian (2024). Economic Aspects of the Indigenous Experience in Canada, 2nd edition. Kingston, Ontario: Queens University Library.

<https://ecampusontario.pressbooks.pub/indigenouseconomics244>

Presentations

Conferences

Queens Conference on Indigenous Reconciliation, Economic Reconciliation panel, February 2023.

CEA, Ottawa, Teaching on Indigenous Economies panel, June 2022.

“Unsettling Economics,” Teaching Indigenous Economics panel, University of Victoria, June 2018.

Research Funds

Grant from Library to produce two open textbooks, $5,000, 2020

QUFA Research Grant, GEO-014-19, $8,000, 2019

Service and Administration

Department

Department of Economics, Queens University

Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, Indigeneity and Anti-Racism Committee, 2023-present
Queens Faculty Association Council Representative, September 2012-present

University

Faculty of Arts and Science Equity, Diversity, Inclusion, Indigeneity and Anti-Racism Committee, 2023-present
Indigenous Studies Program Steering Committee, September 2021-present
Queens University Timetable Committee, September 2014-June 2023
Queens University Faculty Association Executive, September 2013-June 2022
Scholars At Risk Committee, September 2019-December 2021

Community

Treasurer, Our Livable Solutions, Kingston, June 2024-present

Treasurer, St. Marks Lutheran Church, Kingston, February 2021-present

Various roles, Interfaith Refugee Partnership Steering Committee, March 2015-April 2024